AGAINST the most tremendous odds. Fayette county has redeemed herself and keeps step to the music of the Union. It is the only county in the State where the negro population preponderates, the State census giving her 3,362 blacks to 2,178 whites. Hitherto she has had a bad habit of voting the Radical ticket about two to one Freeman receiving 3,341 votes in 1872 to Brown's 1,632. She got out of this fashion last August, and now gives the Democratic ticket a majority of 850, making a gain of 2,559 since the last State election. Vive La Fayette!

PROMINENT among the workers that brought about the recent revolution, especially in its own State, has been the New York Sun. An Election by Bayonets.

The re-election of Hays in Alabam seems to have been the result of a genera system of military occupation, raiding and eral troops were employed for this nefari-ous purpose in this Congressional District alone. The general feeling here is that the next House of Representatives should admit no man to a seat whose election was obtained by military force and violence.

In the Cabinet meeting to-day, the President's remarks upon the defeat of Butler known to these journalists, but they not regard the defeat of Butler as, in any not get out of the parish alive, the citizens sense, a calamity to the Republican party. As to the Democratic Majority in the Next House. In estimating the actual Democratic majority in the next House the Democrats here count, not only those districts which are conceded to their party, but nearly all those where the majorities of Republicans are only a few hundred each. This is done upon the belief that contests will be made by the Democrats who ran in these districts. and that their party in the House will be sure ants. They claim that such a course will be fair, and in accordance with numerous precedents set by the Republicans themselves. They expect to have between on hand, and it is insisted that by the time they are decided, their party majority in the House will not fall much below one

Special to the Cincinnati Commercial. The chances'of various prominent gentlemen for the Speakership of the next House are already being canvassed. Gen. Banks. Fernando Wood, S. S. Cox and ex-Gov. Law. It seems more than ever probable that the law convening Congress on the 4th of Murch will be re-enacted, since it is understool that many Democrats are in favor of L. By its re-enactment they will be eaabl sd to proceed at once to the work of repealing or attempting to repeal such me sures that have been passed by the Re ublicans as are obnoxious to the n. Anticipating a probable op-postion from Republicans, the admissibil-ity of preventing the passage of one or two maportant appropriation bills with a view to forcing the success of the desired bill is

On the other hand, the Republicans are devising legislation which will make the Democratic House powerless for mischief, such as a measure to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to borrow money current expenses in case of a failure in Congress to appropriate, and others of the sort. If such a bill should pass at the next session, the Forty-fourth Congress could not repeal it, as the two branches would be entirely different in political complexion, and a Republican Senate would be in existence to defend and protect the work of a Republican majority in the Forty-third Congress. The Next Session of Congress will be an exceedingly perilous one for the Republican party. All the hungry jobs and steals will assert their claims with great vigor and cunning, and as about 150 ongressmen will be serving their last rm, the temptation to accept bribes will unusually seductive with the weaker ones. NEW YORK.

Charlotte Cushman's Farewell. NEW YORK, Nov. 7 .- The matinee at Booth's Theatre this afternoon was a perfect jam, the major portion of the audience being ladies, many bearing flowers. The house was elaborately decorated. The evening demonstration was still more brilliant. Twenty-third street from Broad way to Sixth was ablaze with lights and filled with a crowd needed a large force of police to keep in order. Many houses in the neighborhood, the theatre itself, was lluminated and the scene inside was of the most inspiring nature. The audience was one of the brightest and best ever gathered within even a Metropolitan theatre and included high civic and military officers and those well known in the literary and art world. Every sitting had its occupant, and the corridors and lobbys filled. The play selected was Macbeth. Throughout the representation Miss Cushman was most generously ap-plauded, and at the close came before the curtain in answer to the loud calls of the people. While preparations were making for the farewell exercises, bands of music engaged the andience. At the close of a well-performed overture the curtain raised, elected. As heretofore stated, L. charge has been so often in the mouths of the people who thought they were supporting the Administration, as that of treason to the Republican party. When Mr. Greeley with equal foresight and humanity sisted that Jefferson Davis should be ried or bailed, and denounced the pitiful arrowness which excluded year after year few thousand Southerners from the privileges which were accorded to their eighbors and their laborers, he was furiously abused by men who were as incamble of comprehending his motives as they were of imitating his benificent life. When they cited him to appear before a little in-quisition at the Union League Club to give reasons why he should not be cut off from among the loyal, he answered in that remarkable letter, which will always remain a masterpiece of reason and of rhet oric, giving expression to the scorn which and good cause, but did not know In that letter occurred one golden phrase which then seemed startling to many ardent Republicans, but which is seen every year to be truer and wiser: "Your attemp to base a great, enduring party on the hate and wrath necessarity engendered by a great civil war, is as though you should plant a colony on an iceberg which had omehow drifted into a tropical occur."

These are beautiful and memorable words, and the Republican party would at his leisure. A man who suggested that appeal of wrath and hatred. They could even Southerners had some right and some find no other argument to make people even Southerners had some right and some interest in the country, was instantly the target of those glib scoundrels, who were stealing the South poor in the name of liberty, and their purblind associates in the North never failed to support them.
